Conservative-Democratic party of Wake county will hold a Convention at the Court House in Raleigh, on Thursday, July 11th, to nominate candidates for the Legislature and for the county officers.

Townships are requested to hold meetings and send Delegates.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

All quiet at Police Headquarters yesterday.

The usual good attendance at the churches Sunday last.

Frank Manning, Esq., of the Raleigh News, spent the Sabbath in the city.

Applications have been made for all the city halls for the State fair week.

Judge Shipp is necessarily detained in the city till Wednesday. He will meet Judge Merrimon at Yadkinville.

It is thought that building operations will commence on the Federal Court House and Post Office within thirty days.

Wagon loads of watermelons from the country were on the streets yesterday, and as a natural consequence, the prices are tumbling.

A. J. Barton, of the News editorial staff, is with our candidates in the west. We expect to lay before our readers the progress of the campaign in the west daily.

Sandy Ireland, colored committed to jail as a lunatic about two months since was on yesterday, released from confinement by Mayor Whitaker. It is thought his mind will be fully restored.

The Granville Democratic Executive Committee held a meeting on Saturday, T. B. Lingsby, of the Sentinel was present. The regular meeting of the Democrats and others opposed to Grant, will take place on Saturday next, the 13th inst.

Owing to the large increase of orders the DAILY NEWS job office is being enlarged and generally improved. Send on your orders. We are daily adding to our stock of material and employ only the very best operators in this department.

Mayor W. W. Whitaker, County Examiner, has examined and granted certificates to thirty-one teachers for the Common Schools of Wake county. Of this number fifteen are white and sixteen colored. There were issued six first-class certificates, eleven second-class and the remainder were third-class.

The new Tobacco Factory will be open for the reception of tobacco on the 9th of July. The first sales-day will take place July 12th. From the success that has attended Taylor's Warehouse, it is almost certain that this one will be a source of remuneration to the proprietors. It is to be called the Granville Warehouse. D. S. Osborn, Esq., J. L. Jones, Esq., and Dr. H. C. Herndon, are its proprietors.

"We expect to make Raleigh so hot for the rum mills that no disgrace it, in a few months, that it will be a curiosity to see one in the city. O ye murderers of men, the Devil will certainly get you."—Banner of Temperance.

Since Bro. Ramsey, has accepted the agency of his satanic majesty for the city of Raleigh, we are gratified to know that he will confine his present operations on Wilmington street, as we are in no condition just now, to settle accounts, with this notorious and much dreaded personage.

We suppose of course that "Hill under the market" will be the agent's headquarters.

COTTON BOLL.—Another cotton boll is reported by Messrs. Weston and M. A. Parkers, farmers, six miles south of this city. On the stalk with this boll, there appeared 115 squares.

INTERESTING ITEMS FROM OXFORD.

Our Oxford correspondent under yesterday's date, sends us the following:

At the Republican meeting at Oxford on July 4th, Mr. John W. Betts announced his unalterable determination to run as an independent Republican candidate for Sheriff. Mr. Betts at present holds the office of Register of Deeds, and has always occupied a high position in his party, having received at the Republican State Convention a flattering vote for the nomination for Auditor. He says he cannot be bought off, but is determined at all hazards to run through.

Oxford has just been enlivened by the arrival of a number of young gentlemen who formerly attended Mr. Horner's school here and by the return of Oxford boys, (perhaps we should say young gentlemen,) who have been off at College. Among the former we notice Richmond Pearson, Jr., of Yadkin, Chas. L. Hunter, of Raleigh, Hugh Page, of Norfolk, W. F. Asher, Jr., of Raleigh, and W. H. Cheek, of Warren, two of Mr. Horner's scholars, are spending their vacation here.

Oxford has many attractions, but we venture to affirm nothing more so in the estimation of these young gentlemen, nor indeed, in the opinion of any one, than its bery of blooming and beautiful young ladies. Among the Oxford young gentlemen just returned are, H. G. Cooper and Carey D. Grandy, Cadets at Lexington Military Academy, and Thornton Lassiter, who is attending College at Princeton.

All of the young North Carolinians who are attending colleges in other States, we are pleased to learn, are taking high positions in their studies, and most of them are pre-eminently distinguished. They were all prepared for College at Mr. Horner's Classical and Mathematical School, which is now being conducted by the joint skill of Mr. J. H. Horner and Prof. R. H. Graves, and is regarded by its patrons and others, as one of the best schools (we had like to have said the very best), in the United States.

SUPREME COURT.—The Court met at the usual hour yesterday morning. All the Justices present.

The following cases from the 12th Judicial Circuit were disposed of as follows:

Anderson Henderson vs. R. D. McCombs, et al., from Cherokee; argued, J. C. L. Guder for plaintiff. No counsel for defendants.

Ann Williams vs. Silas M. Greene, from Cherokee. Placed at end of District. Orville Dupre for plaintiff. Judge Shipp and J. C. L. Guder for defendants.

A. H. Sudderth, guardian vs. McCombs, and Sudderth, adm., from Cherokee; argued, J. C. L. Guder for plaintiff. No counsel for defendants.

The following cases from the 6th District were called.

J. M. L. Rogers vs. Benjamin W. Goodwin et al., from Northampton. Issues tried and filed. Motion for a decree. Smith & Strong and J. J. Yeates for plaintiff, and Conigland, Barnes and Peebles for defendants.

James Hinton vs. David Hinton, Executor, from Wake. Continued under former order. W. S. Mason and T. P. Devereaux for plaintiff, Moore & Gatling for defendant.

Alex. Hilliard and wife vs. W. H. Rowland et al., from Nash. Report filed; continued unless further action is asked. Battle & Sons for plaintiff, Moore and Gatling and W. T. Dovich for defendants.

Keriah Christmas vs. Jos. S. Jones, Ex'r., et al., from Warren; continued under former order. Batchelor for plaintiff, and Smith & Strong and Eaton & Montgomery for defendants.

L. W. Batchelor, Adm., vs. L. M. Macon et al., from Halifax; argued, Batchelor and Moore & Gatling for plaintiff, and R. C. Badger and T. P. Devereaux for defendants.

W. T. Walker and wife vs. John M. Moody et al., from Northampton; report filed. Conigland for plaintiff, and Smith & Strong for defendants.

RADICAL POW WOW, No. 10.—Metropolitan Hall was brilliantly illuminated Saturday night, and only a corporal's guard of the faithful were present to hear HON. John pool and Major Billy Smith, who were announced from the stand on Saturday as the orators for the night. Several speakers of the pow wow on Saturday concluded their remarks by charging the faithful to be on hand promptly at the evening hour.

HON. John, like the large audience that was expected, did not report.

Maj. Smith, evidently much chagrined at the slim attendance, offered an excuse for not speaking. The meeting then resolved itself in a fry for small fish, when Col. Carrow, Badger, Keith and Tim Lee were trotted out.

The character of each of these speeches is too well known to those not present for us to lose time and space in reporting.

The only enthusiasm noticeable was that manifested by the Democrats present, who could not help enjoying the sport. It was indeed rich, rare and racy.

CITY IMPROVEMENTS.—The old Pepper building on the corner of Hargett and Wilmington streets is being torn down, and in its place is to be erected a large Hotel building, which will be kept by W. V. Clifton, Esq., on the European plan.

The hotel will contain thirty neat, comfortable and airy rooms, and all its arrangements will be first class in every particular.

Frap's is hoisting in front of his Lager Beer saloon, a large awning, which will entirely obscure the view of the "blue light" from the editorial sanctum of the Banner of Temperance, across the way.

We congratulate Bro. Ramsey upon securing this devotedly wished-for object of his life, which will doubtless add much to his peace of mind.

The Jeff Fisher "Iron front" is being covered in.

WE PITY THEM.—The spavined,

sore-headed, poor "critters" that got no nomination on Saturday last at the Radical pow wow, are certainly the most disconsolate looking set we ever saw. Even the splendid oratorical effort of Calvin J. Rogers, P. M., the chairman of the nominating committee, in which he almost tearfully regretted that many of his friends that desired positions were necessarily left out for the good of the party, did not have the desired effect of healing the patriotic wounds of the self-sacrificing faithful.

Calvin J. P. M., told them they should yet have a showing, that they would be remembered hereafter, &c.—but in this instance distance does not lend enchantment to the view, and these words of hope and comfort fell short of the mark. Like Rachel weeping for her children, they refuse to be comforted because "they are not."

PERSONAL.—E. Bradford Jones, Esq., of Baltimore, has been spending several days in the city on a visit to his brother, the popular druggist at the firm of Doepf & Jones, on Fayetteville street.

Major Sater Gales, the distinguished Old Fellow Orator, has returned from Norfolk, where he delivered by invitation the address before the Old Fellow anniversary celebration in that city on the 4th inst.

Col. Saml. L. Arrington, of Montgomery county, Alabama, accompanied by his wife, passed through Raleigh a few days ago on a visit to his brother, Hon. A. H. Arrington in Nash county, who is now in feeble health. Col. Saml. Arrington is a native of Nash county, which he represented in the State Senate for sixteen years before the war; but emigrated to Alabama in 1852. He is father of Hon. Thomas M. Arrington, recently Judge of the Montgomery city Court, who is well known in North Carolina.

A WHALE WHAT WAS A WHALE.—

We received yesterday from our friend Geo. W. Charlton, the popular assistant of the far-famed Atlantic Hotel at Beaufort, a portion of a whale's backbone recently caught in North Carolina waters near the Atlantic Hotel.

In regard to its size, dimensions, &c., we can only say "it's a whale," and as it is the first we ever saw we will await the return of Prof. Kerr to the city to give us some information about it before we publish its history.

We heartily thank our kind friend C. of the Atlantic for the bone and his letter, which had the pleasant effect of dispelling from us a chronic case of blues.

Notwithstanding the lamentable fact that the "Atlantic" bill of fare contains only a limited amount of "blackberries," yet we are determined to "try it on," and will be down at an early day.

THE RALEIGH FIRE DEPARTMENT.—

There are in the Fire Department 312 men for active duty as follows:

Rescue Steam Fire No. 1, Capt. W. C. Stronach, Foreman, 69 men.

Hook and Ladder No. 1, Capt. P. Lanson, Foreman, 38 men.

Victor Hand Engine No. 1, (colored), Capt. James H. Jones, (colored), Foreman, 57 men.

Raleigh Bucket and Truck Company, (colored), Capt. Sampson Anderson, (colored), Foreman, 45 men.

JUDGE MERRIMON'S CARD.

AN INFAMOUS CIRCULAR BRAND-ED WITH FALSEHOOD.

JOHN POOL TO BE SUED FOR LIBEL.

We direct the attention of every reader of the News, to the following card, of Hon. A. S. Merrimon, the Democratic candidate for Governor, branding as false, scandalous and libelous, the atrocious document circulated over the State under the name of Pool, and printed by the negro Fred Douglass, at Washington City.

We have before taken occasion to denounce this circular in the strongest language. We call upon our county candidates and speakers in every section, to brand with the mark of falsehood this shameless and unwarranted tissue of slanders and calumnies.

It will be seen that Judge Merrimon has determined to institute suit against Pool for the circulation, under his Congressional frank, of this libelous publication.

Mr. Pool has thus added to his other crimes that of libel; but if the sworn testimony of R. C. Badger be true, this is not the least of his offenses. Mr. Badger swore that Pool suggested in 1870 to Gov. Holden, that certain distinguished Democrats in North Carolina should be placed in charge of a certain individual in the Eastern part of the State named McLindsey, noted for his daring and intrepidity, who would lose the Democrats mentioned by Pool. FROM THIS HELLSH PROPOSITION, THE HEART OF WILLIAM W. HOLDEN REVOLTED WITH INDIGNATION.

Let every Democratic paper in North Carolina publish Judge Merrimon's card, and denounce in proper terms this deep-seated effort to malign and blacken the reputations of our candidates.

Let the voice of the indignant press characterize, with fitting severity, this scurrilous and impious assault upon the true and worthy citizens of the State, who have been put forward as candidates, by our party on account of their talents, integrity, patriotism and devotion to the best interests of North Carolina.

The wicked, malicious, mendacious circular, framed by Pool, will recoil with damaging effect upon its authors and circulators. It will rally the friends of Merrimon with a new zeal and should disgust every decent and respectable Republican in the State.

A CARD.

To The people of North Carolina:

In view of the approaching election, and my present relation to them, I deem it worth while to inform the people that my attention has been called to a scurrilous and libelous paper, extensively circulated in this State, entitled "Read And Circulate."

This paper is anonymous, and does not purport to have the sanction of any Editor, Publisher, political Committee or any body, but it is sent to the people under the Congressional frank of Hon. John Pool United States Senator.

It appropriately makes its first appearance in an obscure weekly paper, published in Washington City, called the "National New Era," edited by a negro named Fred Douglass.

The circular is infamously false, scandalous, and criminal. It imputes to me and other gentlemen, some on and others off the Democratic Conservative ticket for this State, the most infamous crimes against society and individuals, and it is so false, wanton and criminal, that it is not surprising that it is sent out to accomplish what evil it may without apparent sanction of, or attaching amenability to, any one.

It is so monstrously false and scandalous that I was amazed to learn that it was sent out to the people under the frank of Mr. Pool, and I therefore enquired of him, by letter, if it was so sent with his knowledge and consent. He informed me it was, but says it was a "rehash of newspaper articles." It is indeed a "rehash" made up in such an artful way as to charge in terms, by suggestion, artful argumentation, and innuendo against me and others, the most disreputable crimes and conduct against the people and State; and it illustrates a species of desperate and disreputable partisan warfare that cannot be tolerated, much less justified, among a civilized people; nor do I believe the people of this State of any political party will do so.

So far as I am informed the Radical papers of the State, fruitful as they have been of misrepresentation and falsehood, have not republished it.

I deem it due to the people and myself to say for the benefit of any such as might be misled by it, that in so far as it refers to myself the paper is in every material respect absolutely FALSE, SCANDALOUS, AND LIBELOUS, and I believe it is so in reference to the other gentlemen assailed.

In vindication of myself against this wanton attack, it is my purpose to bring suit against Pool, in the Superior Court of Wake, reserving to myself to take such other steps in the future as may be deemed proper.

I am more than willing that the truth shall be ascertained by a judicial tribunal for the better satisfaction of the public, and to the end, that professional politicians may learn that they cannot assail innocent men in such a savage way with impunity, I will give Mr.

Pool the opportunity to make good the charges in the anonymous paper, if he can do so.

It has been suggested that such publications are legitimate in political contests like the present. This may be so according to the code of morals of a class of desperate political adventurers, but it is not so, in my judgment, among gentlemen, or a civilized and virtuous community. Nor do I believe the people of North Carolina of any party will endorse such shameless and groundless assaults upon innocent men, because they happen to be put forward by hundreds of their fellow-men for high, responsible and honorable offices.

The paper referred to is a base and criminal prostitution of the freedom of the press to accomplish the baser purposes of deceiving and misleading the popular mind. This good and patriotic man will not do, and the people of all classes may well distrust those who attempt it.

A. S. MERRIMON.
Raleigh, July 8th, 1872.

BALTIMORE TO-DAY.

The great Democratic Convention meets in Baltimore to-day. We believe that Convention holds in its hands the destiny of the Presidential struggle.

That Greeley and Brown will be endorsed enthusiastically and almost unanimously, we have every reason to believe. The only question that will give rise to discussion is the manner of the endorsement—that is, whether there should be a regular nomination of the Cincinnati ticket or simply an acquiescence without a formal nomination. We think the latter policy the better, for the reason that we do not propose to vote for Greeley as the Democratic candidate, but as a Republican, to defeat the Radical nominee. On account of the impossibility of electing a straight Democrat, we desire to assist in electing a moderate Republican, and thus put an end to the reign of Radicalism in this country.

The Baltimore papers are filled with accounts of the great preparations that have been made for the reception of the delegates and visitors. Ford's Grand Opera House has been fitted up in the most elegant style. The decorations are described as being of the handsomest order. The arrangements for seating the delegates are complete. The location of each delegation is marked with a flag, and a diagram has been published so that any one can see at a glance where each State delegation may be found. North Carolina will sit in the third row.

In front of the Opera House, a grand triple arch is erected, bearing the following words: "Every mountain has sent forth its rill, and every valley its stream, every river its flood, and lo, the avalanche of the people is here."

Over the main entrance of the Theatre, the following words from Andrew Jackson appear: "The Constitution is still the object of our reverence, the bond of our Union, our defence in danger, the source of our prosperity in peace." There are various other mottoes and quotations, the most appropriate of which at this time is the following from Thomas Jefferson: "The whole art of government consists in the art of being honest."

The portraits of Washington, Jefferson, Jackson, Charles Carroll of Carrollton, and Henry Clay will adorn the walls.

To show what thorough arrangements have been made for business, convenience and comfort, we copy the following from the Baltimore Sun: "Each delegate will be furnished with a badge, to be worn, always in sight, on the left lapel of his coat. The absence of the badge may subject the delegate while in the Opera-house to suspicious scrutiny to ascertain whether he is an intruder or not. Badges must be worn by all members of the press, distinguished visitors, telegraphic operators, officers, ushers and pages, to indicate their right to be on the floor of the Convention, else they might be excluded. The ushers will point out the seats assigned to delegations or to members thereof. The pages will carry messages to suit the convenience of delegates, and convey resolutions, &c., to the chair. Resolutions should have the name of the writers inscribed upon them. The officers will rigidly enforce good order, eject intruders, and sustain the doorkeepers in the discharge of their duty."

The entire first floor will be occupied by the Convention, distinguished visitors, editorial and reporter corps, the National Executive Committee, the Committees of Arrangements, and the telegraphic operators. Entrance, central door, Fayette street, or private door on Marion street. Under the stage the rooms will be furnished for Committees to meet or delegations to consult. The ushers will conduct either there when requested. A retiring room for the members of the press will be designated under the stage. Telegraphic facilities will be found on both sides of the stage, and the messages can be sent to any point direct. Nearly thirty instruments will be in operation within the building.

The second floor (balcony circle) will be open to the public. Here a number of seats will be reserved for ladies, but not held (unless occupied) after the Convention is called to order each day. Entrance Fayette street door, nearest Eutaw street. The amphitheatre will be open in connection with the balcony circle to those who have tickets. Entrance easternmost door on Fayette street. Under no ordinary circumstances will any one be admitted to any part of the building without a ticket. Ice water will be supplied in all portions of the building. Smoking and refreshment rooms on each floor, distinct from the auditorium.

THE OUTRAGE IN TARBORO.

We published in the News on last Saturday, a special despatch, giving an account of the attack upon Capt. William Biggs, Editor of the Tarboro Southerner by the Radical negroes of Edgecombe.

We make the following extract concerning the outrage, copied from the Tarboro Weekly Enquirer:

"The speaking took place in the Commons, where a stand had been erected for the purpose; and where one of the most disgraceful scenes took place that was ever enacted in our country. Capt. Wm. Biggs of the Southerner, being present as a reporter for his paper, was insulted by a negro, another, whose name was not given, and an altercation ensued, which led to the most disgraceful scenes took place that was ever enacted in our country. Good News from Western North Carolina—Discussion between Robins and Furches—Cowan and Marler—The Crops.

EAST BEND, YADKIN CO., July 5th, 1872.

Mr. Editor:—We had speaking here on the 4th inst., by the candidates for Congress, Robbins and Furches. There was a large turn out of the good people of Yadkin, Surry, Stokes and Forsythe counties. It is generally conceded by the people that Robbins was a complete victory, that he was a whole team of himself. Furches was decidedly in the minority of the people, and some of the "Rads" say, to be honest, think he has "gotten it up." That Robbins will be elected in the District. The Conservative party is in fine hopes of success in the coming election. We think we will be able to elect our whole ticket in this up country. There is no doubt about the election of Cowan and Marler. The Conservatives have their heads up and their shoulders to the wheel.

The crops in Yadkin are promising; wheat is very good, corn is looking well.

The Fourth of July was quite generally observed in both Richmond and Norfolk, Va., the first time such a thing has occurred since the late war. A Richmond dispatch to the New York Herald, of date the 4th, says: "The great change which has been made so apparent in the sentiment at the North, by the favor which the people there have received the nomination of Mr. Greeley, has produced the happiest effect in the South, and the people are again beginning to feel and act like American citizens—and the old love for their flag and country is returning by common impulse, as it were—for there was no preconcerted plan of action."

The celebration of the Fourth in Philadelphia was seriously disturbed by a heavy storm at night just as the display of fire-works commenced at Fairmount Park. It is estimated that 20,000 women and children were drenched in the rain before any shelter could be reached.

Binghamton, New York—Grand Reception—the Feeling of the People—Scranton, Penn.—The Coal Interests—The Wyoming Valley, &c.

MAUCH CHUCK, LEHIGH VALLEY, Pa. July 4th, 1872.

Leaving Albany Monday morning, we landed in BINGHAMTON, N. Y., the same afternoon, and there were received in a way that touched every man closely. A salute of 37 guns was given us at the depot, and under the lively notes of an elegant band were escorted to our headquarters at the hotel.

This place was the former home of our leader, Maj. Hotchkiss, as also that of Governor Gilbert Walker, of Virginia, and the latter gentleman having visited his friends there to make the city "too hot for us," his instructions were obeyed to the letter. Scarcely had we partaken of a most sumptuous dinner, when we were notified that carriages were in waiting for us, and for the space of some three hours "did the place" most thoroughly, visiting in the meantime the residences of a goodly number of the citizens and doing ample justice to the generous hospitality of each. We thought of Governor Walker's instructions, and became cautious. And in the midst of this private hospitality it was plainly evident that no simple effect was desired, but that it was the genuine outburst of feeling of Northern men towards the representatives of the South—an earnest desire on the part of men of all political feelings to prove to us that they, as earnestly as we of the South, desired a thorough restoration of good feeling and positive harmony between the two sections.

At 10 o'clock at night we were summoned to the banquet room, and here, in a most pleasant interchange of feelings for the space of three hours. These banquets throughout have been scenes of unalloyed harmony, and we have the most flattering assurances that wherever we have been the most lively interest has been awakened as to the needs and wishes of the people of the South, and from men of all politics has come the most bitter denunciation of that class of people who have sought the South as the future seat of their prey—the miserable carpet-bag element who were swayed up from the North during the political throes that shook the foundation of the American government—and the hearty expression is found everywhere that there is no sympathy or love for these adventurers who utterly fail to represent the real feelings and wishes of the North.

Binghamton is most beautifully located, is well built up, and evidences much wealth. Here is located the State Inebriate Asylum, which is a most capacious and handsomely arranged establishment, and we learned had been productive of much good.

On Tuesday afternoon we reached SCRANTON, PENNSYLVANIA, a city of some 50,000 population, but which did not contain more than a half dozen houses 25 years ago, its rapid growth and present wealth being attributable to the development of the coal region immediately surrounding it. We were met at the depot by Mayor Monro and a large number of citizens and were there favorably received. We were quartered at the Wyoming House, and it was evidenced in the beginning that it was the intention of the citizens to equal the hospitality of Binghamton.

After dinner by special invitation we visited the SLOAN MINES, one of the fifteen that are immediately around and in the city, and took a stroll down in the bowels of the earth guided only by the lights that flitted here and there revealing to our untutored eyes those mysterious looking beings that spend their days in this uncanny sphere. And here we beheld what had made these valleys and mountains of Pennsylvania the wealthiest and most prosperous portion of the Eastern States, and felt that though "old king coal" was a "jolly old soul," yet he wielded a power that must be felt throughout our land.

At night we were treated to a banquet, in which some two hundred of the citizens participated, and the toasting and speaking lasted until 3:30 o'clock in the morning. The best of feeling prevailed, and it was evidenced that in Pennsylvania, as in New York, there were hosts of honest friends of the South to be found in all political parties. The honest efforts of the masses to convince us of their good feelings towards us always met a responsive echo from our warm-hearted Southern speakers.

Scranton contains some of the largest rolling and manufacturing establishments in the country, the most of which we visited by special invitation.

We yesterday stopped to dine in the city of WILKESBAIRE, located in the beautiful Wyoming Valley, on the banks of the Susquehanna, and forming one of the most attractive places we have yet seen, being the seat of much of the wealth belonging to the Wyoming Valley. It is to-day celebrating not only the 4th of July, but its hundredth anniversary. It is the home of Gen. Ketchum, a present Republican candidate for Governor of the State. We found him a genial, whole-souled gentleman, and he expressed the warmest feeling for the South and her people.

We passed during the day over the spot on which took place the terrible MASSACRE OF THE WHITES, by the Wyoming Indians in years ago, and beheld the monument erected to that occasion. This occurrence occasioned the name of the valley.

Upon leaving Wilkesbairre over the Lehigh Valley road, we crawled for eighteen miles around and up the mountain which divides the Wyoming from the Lehigh Valley, and after traveling this distance found ourselves only three miles from and immediately over the town which we had left, and here was presented to the eye

THE GRANDEST SCENE we had yet beheld—a scene which we could not tire looking upon, for scarcely had we commenced to admire the broad expanse of valley, stretching out to the green mountains on every hand, the Susquehanna slowly meandering its way through it, with the beautiful city of Wilkesbairre, with its hum and busy life immediately under us and skirting the banks of the Susquehanna, the whole presenting a lovely panorama, when the train moved rapidly down the Lehigh Valley, and thus robbing us of the scene.

After running through a gorge and down the banks of the Lehigh river for some fifty miles, we reached

THIS ROMANTIC SPOT yesterday evening, but as we wish to speak of it particularly, we will leave Mauch Chuck and its attractions to be discussed in another letter.

STENO.

[Correspondence of the News.] Robert Vance in the West.

Editors News: The people of the Mountains are being roused to the highest degree of enthusiasm, by the masterly efforts of Gen. R. B. Vance, our noble standard bearer for Congress in this District. His canvass thus far, has been distinguished by his eloquent delineations of the odious tendencies of the Radical party, and his zeal in the array of facts and figures against the aggressions of the dominant party, carries conviction to the hearts of the people.

Rob Vance has long been recognized as a man of the most exemplary character in every respect. His reputation for integrity, and strict honesty, is proverbial throughout the country. His efforts in behalf of the various charitable and religious institutions of the country, as well as having been at the head of the Masonic fraternity of the State, have long since pointed him out as one of the most useful and exemplary men of the times. But until recently, it was not known that he had such power before the people in the political arena. He has already proven himself one of the most gifted and eloquent debaters in the State. His warm, emotional and pathetic strains of eloquence, his impressive and graphic style of argument, strike the public mind with the most extraordinary force and effect.

Gen. Vance has never been a politician—he has not a single stain upon his record as a gentleman, as an honest man. And thus suddenly coming before the people, and evincing such rare powers of debate, it seems like the bursting forth of a new and brilliant star upon the political firmament, already full of shining lights among our statesmen and orators.

And, Mr. Editor, you may look out for the most gratifying results from the Mountain District. The people in our section of the State are far ahead of the leaders. They are sickened to the very heart with Radicalism—even the oily and demagogical tongue of Todd R. Caldwell is powerless to move many of his own party. The whole party in the West evinces signs of defeat. The entire mass of our party, with quite a number of the opposition, will endorse Greeley with a perfect enthusiasm.

Our people say "give us a change," "give us rest peace," "give us equal political rights," "let us first lift the fetters from fixed upon us by the Grant despotism."

Our standard bearer for Governor, Judge Merrimon, will sweep the mountains. The gallant Majors, Hughes and Graham are coming West. Look out for a perfect "ground swell" from the mountains, and we now can feel that Radicalism in the mountains is dead! dead!! dead!!! OBSERVER.

FOR SALE. VALUABLE LAND FOR SALE IN THE COUNTY OF WARREN.

I offer for sale, five hundred and two (502) acres of land, situated in the county of Warren, on Schoep Creek, adjacent to the Sulphur Springs, of Col. J. M. Heck, on both sides of the Turnpike Road, leading from the Sulphur Springs to the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad, and nine miles from the latter place. There is an over-land route, through the cabins, corn-crisp and stables on the premises. About one-fourth (1/4) of the tract is in original growth of pine, and the balance is in second growth pines. The soil is sandy, lean and chocolate-colored, undulating, well watered, and about 200 acres of rich bottom land. It yields excellent crops of corn, tobacco, wheat, oats, clover, &c. This is one of the best tracts of land in this section, and will be sold on reasonable terms.

TUESDAY, JULY 9, 1872.

GONE BEFORE.

There's a beautiful face in the silent air,
Which follows me ever and near,
With smiling eyes and a clasp of hair,
With voiceless lips, yet with breath of prayer,
That I feel but cannot hear.

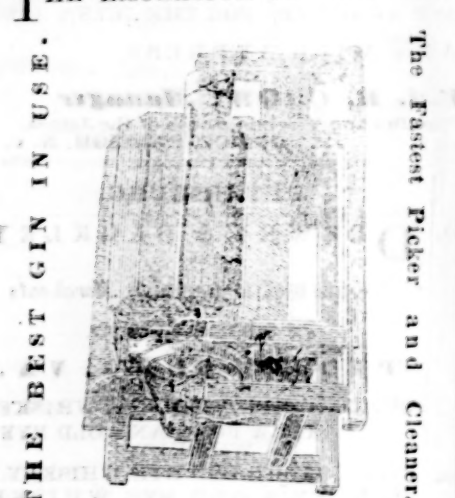

The dimpled hand and ringlet of gold
Lie low in a marble sleep;
I stretch my hand for a clasp of old,
But the empty air is strangely cold,
And my vigil alone I keep.

There's a sinless brow with a radiant crown,
And a cross laid down in the dust;
There's a smile where never a shade comes now,
And tears no more from those dear eyes flow,
So sweet in their innocent trust.

Ah, well! and summer is come again,
Singing her same old songs;
But, oh! it sounds like a sob of pain,
As it floats in the sunshine and rain,
Over the hearts of the world's great throng.

There's a beautiful region above the skies,
And I long to reach its shore,
For I know I shall find my treasure there,
The laughing eyes and amber hair,
Or the loved one gone before.
